Presents

Chicks-in-the-Sticks

A Series of Outdoor Workshops Designed for Women

This event is open to women 18 and older.

Chicks-in-the-Sticks is designed to be a fun day for women to try new things, brush up on old skills, and meet new people.

Our goal is to have participants become knowledgeable in an outdoor activity through a hands-on experience and have an opportunity to take away a product or skill.

Past classes included things like Archery, Basic Kayaking, Invasive Plants, Fly Casting, Bike Maintenance and Riding Skills, Bird Identification Techniques, Adventure Food, Herb Walk, Medicinal Uses of Herbs, Art of Wood Burning, Pottery, Wool Felting, and others.

See our website friendsocsp.org for a complete list.
