

Directions to Oil Creek State Park

THE PETROLEUM CENTER BRIDGE IS CLOSED
Follow Rt 227 Detour signs for Petroleum Center Rd.

East Side Locations

Egbert Farm Day Use Area (Picnic and Playground)

Chicks in the Sticks

Park Office

Cross Country Ski Area and Summer Biathlon

Group Camping Area

Delayed Harvest Fishing Area

Oil Creek Bike Trail south trail head

Gerard Hiking Trail (east) and Cow Run Shelters

From the Northwest

Take State Route 8 south from Titusville approximately 13 miles to Rouseville and the intersection with Route 227. Follow Route 227 north to the village of Plumer. Watch for signs and take Petroleum Center Road (on the left) to the park office area at the bottom of the hill.

From the Northeast

Take route 227 south from Pleasantville approximately 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ miles to the Village of Plumer. Watch for signs for Oil Creek State Park and turn right onto Petroleum Center Road. Follow that approximately 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles to the base of the hill. The park office and amphitheater will be on the right, and the Egbert picnic area will be on the left.

From the South

Take route 8 north from Oil City (approximately 2 miles) to Rouseville. Take Route 227 north to the village of Plumer. Watch for signs to Oil Creek State Park. Take Petroleum Center Road (on the left) to the bottom of the hill where you will see the park office and Egbert Farm picnic area.

Parking:

Parking is available in the Egbert picnic area, by the park office and by the bike trail head.

The Bike Trail that uses State Park Road can not be accessed from the east side.

Caution:

DO NOT use State Park Road to Get to Chicks in the Sticks.

Blood Farm, Train Station, and Wild Cat Hollow and points north of Petroleum Center can still be accessed by State Park Road.